

Town Attorney

Job Announcement

The Town of Colonial Beach is currently accepting applications for the position of Town Attorney. Colonial Beach is an independent town in Westmoreland County with a population of approximately 3,500. Nestled on the Potomac River in the Northern Neck region, Colonial Beach possesses the second-largest public beachfront in the state. Colonial Beach was a very popular resort town in the early to mid-20th century and because of its quaint character and charm, Colonial Beach is now in the throes of a major renaissance. The Town employs 54 employees. The Town is led by a seven member town council to include the Mayor in a council manager form of government. The Town Attorney serves as the legal representative, providing legal services to the Town Council and Town Manager. The successful candidate should be assertive and able to communicate effectively with Town Council and the Town Manager. Candidates should possess a minimum of a Juris Doctor and ability to practice law in the Commonwealth of Virginia. Minimum of five (5) years of experience as a practicing attorney with preferably five (5) years of experience in municipal law.

The Position Description and Application Instructions are available:

<http://www.colonialbeachva.net/> or contact Laura Corbin, Human Resources Manager at 315 Douglas Avenue, Colonial Beach, VA 22443, lcorbin@colonialbeachva.net.

Application Deadline: September 30, 2020

Salary: Negotiable

Job Category: Town Attorney

Type of Employment: At Will Employee

Job Location: Colonial Beach, Virginia

City, Town, or County: Town of Colonial Beach

Note:

The Town of Colonial Beach is an equal opportunity employer and hires on the basis of individual merit and qualifications and without regard to race, color, sex, age, religion, national origin, political affiliation or handicap.